From a Gentleman in JAPAN
Tottori, Japan, Sept. 11, 1895.
Mason & Hamlin Co.,
146—Boylston St., Boston
Gentlemen:—The piano has had as eventful a career in some ways as any in Japan, I suppose. The steamer it came on was captured and held some weeks by the Chinese. On arriving late in Japan it had to be transported over sundry railroads, and at last carted on a hand-cart 70 miles over two high mountain ranges by terribly bad roads. Since then it has passed a cold winter and hot summer, both terribly damp. In spite of that, and the fact that it has not been tuned since leaving your warerooms, it retains its pitch and tone delightfully.
Yours very truly,

THE ITALIAN CRISIS.

Republican and Socialist Meetings.

Disorders in Verona, Venice, Milan and Padua.

The Women Petition.

Rome, 7th—In political circles it is understood that Saracco and Sonnino will be asked to form part of the new Cabinet on the understanding that they will support an energetic policy to retrieve the defeat in Abyssinia. Public opinion is in favor of continuing the campaign with increased vigor.

In Parliamentary circles, however, a belief is gaining ground that Signor Rudini will be called on by the King to form the new Ministry.

A late telegram from General Baldiserra says that it is quite impossible to take the offensive at present as there is a scarcity of provisions and the Transport Service only exists in name.

The Tribuna, a leading paper, says that Italy is passing merely through a transitory crisis and that the honor and interests of the nation demand a more energetic action to wipe out the disastrous effects of the defeat of the Italian forces.

Telegrams from Massauah this evening announce that General Baldissera has commissioned Major Salsa to arrange a truce with the Negus Menelik in order to bury the Italians fallen at Amba-Garima. The Major goes also to ascertain the number of killed in the two battles. The probabilities are that many of the men missing are prisoners of the Abyssinians. The Negus will be asked for an exact list of their names.

In high political circles it is said that Premier Crispi will send to the Chambers documents proving that had the Cabinet followed his suggestions the defeats in Abyssinia would have been averted.

A telegram has been pnblished in Paris announcing that the Negus Menelik, to to show his magnanimity, has decided to deliver Commander Galliano to the Italian General.

Latest telegrams confirm the news that the Abyssinians showed the black troops under Baratieri no mercy. The Ascari got no quarter, were treated as traitors to their country and their faith, and were horribly mutilated.

The idea of forming a Cabinet under Marquis Rudini has been abandoned. The noble Marquis discountenanced the campaign in Abyssinia and was only willing to cling to the triangle in the Eritrea colony.

The probabilities are now that the new Cabinet will be elected on the basis of Saracco, who carries with him a majority in Parliament and was Minister of Public Works. The press favors this combination.

There is no news from Adigrat. There are many rumours afloat. It is probable, however, that General Baldissera has sent forward Captain Stocco with troops and provisions to the relief of the garrison, Major Slazza protecting the advance.

Indignation meetings against the Government were held to-day at Imola and Faenza.

His Holiness Leo XIII., attended the Mass to-day in the Sixtine Chapel for the fallen at Amba-Garima. He has requested the Propaganda Fidei to send missionaries to Eritrea and has also forwarded funds to the Capuchin Fathers in Eritrea. His Holiness believes that owing to community of religion the Russians are helping the Negus.

In Verona, Venice, and Padua, the Socialist Party is availing of the excitement to promote indignation meetings in which they clamor for an immediate amnesty for all political offenders. In Milan the mob is still very unruly, but both the police and the troops display the greatest moderation when dispersing the public. Republicans and Socialists are the chief elements in the agitation, and numerous arrests have been effected.

In Milan 14 persons were injured in the riots of the day before yesterday and in Pavia several were also wounded.

Petitions are being signed by the women of Rome, Turin, Milan and Pavia, praying King Humbert to recall the army from Africa.

Latest.—The King held to-day long interviews with Signor Orispi and General Cosenz. In influential circles a desire is prevalent that a war of revenge should be carried on against Abyssinia.

The latest news about the Ministry is that after all Saracco will probably be entrusted with its formation.

The Italian Ambassador Count Tornielli Brusati paid to-day an official visit to M. Berthelot the Minister for Foreign Affairs to thank him for the sympathy with Italy shown by France.

The official organs publish to-night a statement to the effect that 189 of the officers under Baratieri who took part in the battle of Adua have survived, and that 5 are captives in the hands of the Abyssinians, amongst them being counted Colonels Nava and Galliano.

THE CRISIS IN SPAIN.

Popular Indignation against the U. States.

Excitement at its Climax.

Official Denial of Spanish Alliances.

President Cleveland's Declaration.

Precautionary Measures.

Collision between Students and troops

Fresh Credits for Armaments.

Madrid, 7th.—The harmony in the opinions of the Spanish Press in face of the threatened recognition of belligerency in Cuba by the United States is calling attention. All party divisions have been silenced in this emergency, and all the papers agree that when the patriotism of Spaniards is put to the test all family dissensions must vanish, that whoever dares to provoke Spain must pause, as he would be opposed by a united people, zealous of their rights and dignity, and prepared to shed the last drop of blood and spend the last Peseta in the defence of their national honour, no matter who may be the aggressor.

Many members af the Diplomatic Corps visited Minister Taylor to-day and in view of the gravity of the situation offered their Legations and resisidences in case of necessity. Minister Taylor is quite confident that the energetic measures of the Government will prevent any outrage.

The excitement in this capital is intense. All the coffee-houses and saloons are crowded with people discussing the situation and on the "qui vive" for news.

The Government has received information that serious disturbances are feared this evening in many cities of the Kingdom. In all the large cities the indignation is at fever height since the news of the trampling on the Spanish flag in the United States.

In spite of the precautionary measures taken, the excitement against America is so violent that disturbances may break out again and increase the strain in the relations between the two nations.

Strong bodies of police are stationed round the American Legation: picquets of cavalry are on guard. Another assault on the Legation is feared to-night.

The excitement in Madrid has spread to Barcelona, Cadiz, Valencia, Malaga, Ferrol, Santiago, etc. All the troops in these parts have been called to quarters ready for any emergency.

In Cadiz to-day there was a serious assault on the American Consulate: the attack was organized by the students of the University, who charged the very troops defending the building. The scuffle lasted some time, but the troops fortunately did not fire. Many of the students were bayonetted in the riot. Twenty were arrested.

In Santiago de Compostella the indignation meetings against the States have assumed such proportions and are so threatening that the troops have been called out to restore order.

In diplomatic circles it is understood that the Spanish Government, out of deference to the American nation, will not file an official protest in Washington for the insults to the Spanish King and Spanish flag.

The Government decreed to-day a fresh expenditure of 6½ million pesetas for naval preparations.

At Valencia to-day there was a meeting to protest against the attitude of the United States Congress and Senate. Over 4,000 people were present, but there was no disorder.

LATEST.

Serious rioting occurred in Barcelona, The troops were ordered to charge the mob, and several were injured.

Echoes from the United

Washington, 7th.—The Spanish Minister here received from Mr. Olney assurances that Spain was not making foreign alliances beyond those of a commercial character.

President Cleveland stated that he is not responsible for the Spanish statement, attributed to him, that the American Government, in the present juncture the recognition of belligerency or declaration of war in favor of Cuba.

New York, 7th—It is reported that the Spanish Prime Minister Canovas del Castillo has ordered the Spanish Minister in Washington to call on Mr. Olney and officially declare that Spain does not want any rupture with the United States.

being slack, it occurred to him to tell his story and show his ear to a committee of the House of Commons. The effect was remarkable. England had for some time been very restive over the Spanish pretensions to exclusive dominion in the south seas, and this outrage was the crowning insult that could not be borne. Jenkins's ear became an oriflamme. In fact, the Spanish pretension that a Dog-in-the-manger who would do no trading himself should prevent other people from trading was hostile to civilization, and it was this pretension that the British resisted.

It was in the course of resisting the Spanish pretension that the English took possession of the Falkland islands under color of discovery and first occupation, but this claim is doubtful. Capt. Davis sighted the islands in 1592, as he was driven past them in a gale, and in 1594 Sir Richard Hawkins saw them again and named them Hawkins's Maiden Land, in [illegible] of himself and his Queen. But [illegible]ted by the Dutch. [illegible]ald de Mert gave [illegible]ed the geo- [illegible]d in the [illegible] Se- [illegible]y [illegible]nd, with facilities to procure [illegible]ired.

AMBA-GARIMA DEFEAT.

[illegible] last sketch of the position [illegible]n Africa, published in the [illegible]arch 5th and actually [illegible]ary 29th, several days [illegible]gence of the Amba-Ga- [illegible]ived in Buenos Ayres, [illegible]d in the light of sub- [illegible]to have been almost [illegible] up to date the predic- [illegible] of the STANDARD, as [illegible]es of the war, have [illegible]y actual events. tion stands unparaleled in the history of shipping. We see continuous and rapid development in every direction, and we find nothing that would justify us in asserting or supposing that progress is likely to be less continuous or less rapid in the future than it has been in the past in the Naval Architecture of Great Britain; yet it is pleasant if not amusing to hear our continental neighbours discuss the subject, and affect to believe that either France or Russia has become the equal of England in naval power; of course the Russian calculation of their navy being in any way equal to England is too preposterous to discuss, and we will pass on to France, and suppose that she has become the equal of England in naval power simply by increasing her armed vessels in number and size, and by keeping fleets prepared for instantaneous action. All the world knows that on the sea, France has, as it were, but a single line of battle and no reserves. An "initial blow" is all that she can deliver on the ocean to a power like Great Britain, sovereign and supreme in every element and resource of naval warfare.

A true comparison of the fighting forces of diferent nations upon the sea must take into account their resources in men and ships, in fuel, provisions and munitions, in outlaying fortifications and coaling [illegible]ations, and in skill, courage and money. [illegible]st comes the navy proper with its [illegible]yards, arsenals, trained personnel; [illegible] the merchant marine, (particu- [illegible] ocean liners, the greyhounds of [illegible]) shipyards, dry docks and [illegible]hird, the coals and sea shores [illegible]nd, with facilities to procure [illegible]ired.

Frederick B. Beard.

General Wolsley himself admits these defects, and says that provided a man is a good shot and can march well, a very small amount of drill will make him an effective man. The British losses at Maiwand, Majuba hill, Isandula and the Soudan were so many object lessons on this point. In this particular case the Italians had every disadvantage. They had no experience, the country is one of the most difficult under the sun, and they had for foes, a race who have been compelled by stern necessity to defend their native land against all comers for 1[illegible]0 years, and as a consequence are [illegible]en soldiers. These huge military machi[illegible] Europe are all right for display, [illegible]en when played off against a foe who uses the same tactics. But when it comes to real, stern pioneering in a wild country, these toy soldiers are useless. Their training has unfitted them for that sort of work. The statement that 100,000 Abyssinians took part in the Amba Garima affair is absurd. For the Abyssinians, with their defective commissariat arrangements, the campaign has already been a long one. Even the hardy Ethiopians require something more nourishing than the invigorating [illegible] of their native hills. Even for 50,000 men the food supply would be a difficult question. In fact that is about the probable number who were under arms. As matters stand, Kassala in the Eastern Soudan, near the foot of the Abyssinian highlands, with a garrison of 2500 men, is in a state of siege, and the whole of the Eastern Soudan will rally around it, under the banner of Osman Digna. Unless the garrison cut their way out at once their position is desperate. Their relief would now be a most difficult undertaking. In the highlands, every feudal chief will join Menelik as soon as he is required. As matters stand, if General Baratieri had all the able-bodied men in Italy under his command, it would be impossible to retrieve the situation. The thing has gone too far. The native troops will never go into action again. And every African who can lift a spear will fight like a hero for Menelik. For a single battle in the heart of the country the Abyssinians would have no difficulty in concentrating 200,000 men. Although they could not be kept together for a sustained campaign.

Knowing the circumstances of the case my sympathies are entirely with the Abyssinians. In defending their native land they have displayed the most admirable gallantry. The Italian nation have been misled by a lot of empty-headed politicians who know nothing of practical colonization. Why could not Italy rest content with the peaceful conquest of S. America, by the pluck and industry of her sons? Apart from that aspect of the question, some of these notable politicians have been guilty of fraud in their dealings with the Abyssinians. Ras Makunen has informed the writer that during his trip to Italy he was treated practically as a prisoner. He desired to visit [illegible] English authorities in Egypt, but was [illegible]mitted. He also wished to make a trip [illegible] Rome to see the other European ca- [illegible], but was not allowed to do so. [illegible]e was an attempt made to get him to [illegible] a treaty, which he refused to have [illegible]ing to do with until Menelik sent a [illegible]age saying:—"Sign anything they [illegible] you, as long as you are permitted to [illegible]rn." Such was the origin of the [illegible]ous treaty we have heard so much of. [illegible]justice to the Italian nation, I must [illegible] that only an unscrupulous few had [illegible] idea of what was going on, and thou- [illegible]ds of honest peaceful peasants have [illegible]d to pay the penalty of this diplomatic [illegible]canery with their lives. The exquisite [illegible]gment and diplomacy which Ras Ma- [illegible]nen has displayed since his return to [illegible]byssinia is not altogether unworthy of [illegible]e descendant of Solomon.

NOTES AND ANTICIPATIONS.

There is a splendid card for to-day's meeting at Palermo, at least it is so much superior to that discussed and disposed of last Sunday that we may expect to see a much bigger crowd on the course. The classic will be, in spite of Orsino's manifest superiority to anything we have yet seen, extremely interesting, as he is meeting new candidates in nearly all the 26 coloured; still he is so smart and handy that until he is beaten we cannot get beyond him. Brandzen should have an easy win in the opening event, as he has shown us that he is of the very useful order and has almost nothing to dispose of, but it is extremely doubtful that he will be pulled out for $1,200 over a short distance, staying being evidently his forte, and Rayon d'Or ought to be as good as anything else. Yankee, Juncal and Gatito are the pick of a nice batch in the elite, the Indecis colt having undoubtedly the best of the handicap if he is at all fit. Espoir looks a good thing too over 1,800 metres, though it is not a "snip," as anything from Coral to Eclipse might win. The Potosi stakes will be a match between Josefita and Pas de Quatre, the former being fast and the latter a good stayer, though her sister Danseuse was not remarkable for stamina. Rosemary can hardly miss placing the $2,200 in the long distance to the credit of the Azur stable, and the Indecis stud should account for the final, though there are a lot of very speedy ones. Our selections are:—

Premio Amianto—Rayon d'Or.
" Danton—Gatito.
" Kemmis—Orsino.
" Rivadavia—Espoir.
" Potosi—P. Ecurie.
" G. Lavalle—Rosemary.
" Ontario—E. Indecis.

The Central Cordoba has been absolved of all blame with reference to the man run over at kilometre 12, the investigation throwing it was not through fault or carelessness of the Company's servants.

The Rosario Railway has been similarly absolved for an off-the-line in January last.

The Western Co. is called to account for the row made by the porters in the Once Station, which knocks about and inconveniences passengers.

The Central Argentine gets two months to put up some culverts in Belgrano and enlarge others already made. At Saavedra this company has to make 8 culverts in 60 days.

Government has approved the plans for the relaying with steel rails of the Rosario line approaching the Retiro.

The Minister of the Interior has added to the Railway Regulations some new ones to secure the efficacy of the "Complaint Books" kept, or supposed to be kept, at each railway station, according to law.

Government has decided to suppress the third paragraph of Article 5 of the Railway Regulations and put in its place another (Art 5 A) proposed by the Railway Board, amplifying the rules about combination trains.

Government has authorized the National Railway Board to name and renew the personnel of the State Railys. within the limits fixed by the Budget.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY CELEBRATION

Quite a large and representative body of our countrymen met yesterday at the office of Mr. Patrick Ham, the well-known and highly respected wool broker, to discuss the advisability of celebrating our great national festival with a banquet at one or other of the leading hotels in this city. Mr. David Suffern being voted to the chair unanimously, with Professor Tho. J. Murphy of the National College as secretary, the meeting proceeded to elect the committee and officers charged with the conclusion of the necessary arrangements.

A question was raised as to the price of the tickets, which the secretary explained would be more or less the same as last time—$26.00. This included not alone the price of the banquet but also the necessary expenses attending the organisation of the feast, printing etc.

It is understood that none but Irishmen or their descendants will be admitted, and that members are not obliged to present themselves in evening dress. All other questions are left to the committee in the understanding that the feast will be carried out on the same lines as those so successfully established on a similar occasion in 1892.

We take this early occasion to advise our friends in the camp, in the hopes that they will help at all cost or trouble to make the occasion worthy of our numbers, wealth and intelligence.

I may further state that Mr. James Carthy of Navarro was elected vice president, his name being withdrawn in favour of an equally worthy man (both absent,) Mr. Carthy's friends knowing this gentleman's naturally retiring nature.

The following is the committee:—
Hon. President J. J. Murphy.
Act. " Dr. Santiago J. O'Farrell
Vice " Felix M. Dolan.
Sec. D. Suffern.
Treasurer Patrick Ham.
Committee:—Thos. Duggan, Jno. Moore, Wm. Casey, M. J. Byrne, J. Carthy, F. H. Mulhall, Patk. Dowling, Eugene Gahan, Jas. H. Fitzsimon, Edo. Morgan, (Arrecifes.)

Mr. José Pichetto of Tucman 1110, has been robbed wholesale. During his temporary absence thieves broke into his house and carried off $50,000 worth of stock and shares, $1,000 gold and $200 paper.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Ides of March! The elections are the event of to-day, and we hope the best men will win. There is no chance of order being disturbed, as the new Chief of Police has taken the most ample precautions to ensure peace. Time was when we all shivered in our boots and remained at home, with the hall-door locked and barred, during a Sunday election; but "nous avons changé tout cela," and the ballot has vanquished the bullet for ever. The other events of the day are harmless: cricket and tea, racing, etcetera and water, etc., etc.

Sixty one favoured individuals held the following numbers in yesterday's Lottery:—22136, $200,000; 7728, $20,000; 21379, $10,000; 18918, 17081, $2,000; 17027, 15555, 19983, 1212, 6491, 9066, $1,000; 17165, 8224, 19052, 9980, 12234, 1225; 10537, 3668, 18050, 10284, 5152, 15601, 20417, 14484, 4534, $100; 14385, 12497, 12020, 10214, 12771, 22910, 5292, 1096, 17259, 19503, 7818, 4100, 3698, 6527, 10698, 4274, 13705, 18434, 4070, 16708, 7706, 17822, 11866, 17146, 18977, 78742, 19552, 8929, 14044, 19511, 22043, 3587, $200.

In spite of the "grito en el cielo" in some quarters about the terrific prices Ferrari charges for his opera this season, he has still the Old Guard at his back, as can be seen by the following list of families who have already taken "palcos":—Larrazabal, Romero, Madero, Terry, Basualdo, Cobo, Correa Morales, Quirno Costa, Quesada, Frias, Alvear, Roca, Moreno, Villate, Cano, Avellaneda, Vaz, Lavalle, Lynch, Barrenechea, Massera, Villegas, Alcorta, Hueyo, Alkaine, Unzue, Uriburu, Mezquita, Casado, Benitez, Obligado, Elizalde, Fabier, Saenz Valiente, Alzaga, Blaquier, Anchorena, Pellegrini, Perez, Demarchi, Santa Marina, Devoto, Lezica, Saavedra, Lamas, Villar, Luro, Blanco del Carril.

The news from Italy yesterday was worse and worse, the worst of all being a rumour that the garrison of Adigrat had surrendered from starvation. The rioting is going on still in the Italian cities, and King Humbert cannot get a new Cabinet, as he openly declares that the war must be continued. Beware, Your Majesty. Listen to Mr. Alex MacDonald's words of wisdom in another column. Not even your whole army could conquer the Abyssinians.

Although the temperature was most stuffy and oppressive yesterday there was nothing fresh in the yellow fever line at Belgrano, in port, or anywhere else, so the citizens went to bed with easy minds, an important factor in a good night's rest.

There was nothing fresh about the Chilian muddle yesterday except that our neighbours are now enlisting Englishmen as well as Germans in their service, ten first-class engineers and six naval gunners having just arrived from England in the Orissa.

Dr. Beazeley, the new Chief of Police, has begun well and is making great reforms in his administration. The police force under his direction will cease to be military and more on a parity with the London and Dublin police. Dr. Beazeley comes of a good old Irish stock and will doubtless make as good a Chief of Police as his two Irish predecessors Mr. Henry O'Gorman and Dr. Daniel J. Donovan, whose name in a previous notice, in the hurry, we omitted. We now make the amende honorable to Dr. Donovan by reminding our readers that one of the sweetest of Irish songs is attributed to the pen of a Mr. Donovan of Bundoran, or some place about there, possibly an ancestor of our ex-Chief of Police. The lines run so:

As beautiful Kitty one morning was tripping
With a pitcher of milk from the fair of Coleraine,
When she saw me she stumbled. The pitcher it tumbled.
And all the sweet butter-milk watered the plain
Oh! what shall I do now? I was looking at you now.
Sure, sure, such a pitcher I'll ne'er meet again,
T'was the pride of my dairy, O'Barney McCleary
You're sent as a plague to the girls of Coleraine.

There is a great Cricket Match on to-day at Palermo. We back the Single men, although there are some good players amongst the Married. We are afraid to say a word about playing cricket on Sunday after our frightful lapsus of yesterday in allowing into this column a paragraph sent to us concerning a blasphemous Brazilian alcalde. Our readers well know our strict principles and strong religious sentiments, and that only through a surprise could such a paragraph appear in our columns.

Yesterday we had a visit from the son of our old and lamented friend Mr. Giebert, of Fray Bentos, who was a little small boy shooting marbles in Fray Bentos when we visited his father's world-renowned fabric. Mr. Giebert has kindly invited us to visit the the Sta. Elena and Xavier fabrics on the Parana, which rival to-day the Fray Bentos establishment, with which they work now in combination. We promise our readers, therefore, a description of these great factories shortly.

All members of the Choral Union taking part in The Mikado, whether as principals or in the chorus, are particularly requested to attend and to be punctual at the rehearsal on Monday next the 9th inst at 8-30 in the evening, in the Prince George's Hall. We must congratulate the committee on their having taken the Opera House for the performance, which, we understand, is fixed for the 9th April next.

In reply to a "subscriber" we beg to say that the address of our highly talented contributor, Mr. Alexander K. MacDonald is "care of Mr. Jingle, Obras del Puerto de Madero, Capital."

The Venezuela question is warming up again, and there is a flutter in Caracas, owing to news from the Dutch settlement of Curacoa that a British squadron of five vessels is shortly expected there. On Friday the Blue Book about this question was laid before the House of Commons. It traces the history of the territory from the occupation by the Dutch and Spaniards in 1520 to the present day, and proves the possession of the territory in dispute by the Dutch (through whom the English claim it) previous to 1590.

We are requested to say that, if Mr. W. Goodwin Welby will kindly communicate with the Compañia de Fabricantes Ingleses, they will feel much obliged.

The last number of the Ilustracion Sud Americana is especially good. The two large pictures, "Give unto God what is His, and unto Cesar what is his." and "Genius and Madness" are downright gems, which should be taken to Moody to be framed. There are several portraits: President Pierola of Peru, Drs. Miguel Cane and Garcia Merou, and Don Nicolas Vedia.

The papers in Chile are furious at the Argentine terms for a settlement of the Boundary muddle, as published here the other day, all the more so as there is a rumour that the Moneda is inclined to accept them. Our Chilian friends are at last awakening to the fact that the psychological moment is at hand.

Our well-known grocer friends Messrs. Feeney and Co are going ahead like a torpedo-Destroyer. They have a big advertizement in another column to which we call the attention of all those who want first-chop groceries.

The 34 hale and hearty residents in the Belgrano "manzana" infected by yellow fever are to-day to be carted down to the neighbouring beach whence in small boats first and afterwards in a steamer they are to be conveyed for an impromptu picnic on that charming island known as Martin Garcia. In this hot weather we guess they will rather like it than otherwise especially as the Government pays for the cold lamb and cherry-pie. Why not take the dogs, cats, goats, cocks, hens, the solitary monkey, etc., to share in the outing? The 3 unfortunates who are ill, are to be taken to the Rodolfo del Viso on which lugubrious craft poor Robert Scott, 3rd engineer of the Tiverton died yesterday of yellow fever.

We recommend to the attention of our readers the very splendid chapters on the Italian defeat in Abyssinia written by our talented correspondent Mr. Alex K. MacDonald, who certainly seems to us about the best informed man in this country on this Abyssinian question.

Our reputation for poetry is so increasing that we find it difficult to answer all the letters sent us about the authorship of old songs and verses. Yesterday we received another kind note from a friend in one of our banks asking us for the authorship of "The Hanging of the Crane." Will no one help us in the difficulty?

Yesterday we had a visit from an English tourist, who returns next week to England so very favorably impressed with the Plate and its prospects that he has just bought a nice piece of estancia land on the Rio Negro. He visited Sr. Martinez de Hoz's estancia near Mar del Plata, which is considered one of the finest establishments in the country. He says that the Luros have just had an offer of 40,000 m/n, per league for their immense property on the Colorado and declined same. This is about the highest figure we have as yet heard for land down there, but all those camps are soft grass camps and admirable for sheep; the average increase of the flocks on those camps is from 45 to 60 per cent per annum. No wonder that there is now so much wool coming up from those Colorado camps.

Fire insurance agents have been looking rather pale and sickly of late. For weeks past they have been called out of bed in the middle of the night, to witness fires for which they had subsequently to pay: in other words they are going to blazes every night. Yesterday morning there were two fires, one in a "cocheria" in Calle Viamonte, and the other in a grocery in Calle Entre Rios. In both cases there was much damage done.

The next festival racket in dear old Quilmes will be to welcome home Dr. Pacifico Diaz, the eminent physician of the town, who returns after a year's sojourn in Europe.

We find the following very amusing paragraph in the Montevideo Times:—"A grand joke developed itself yesterday. Some days ago our native contemporaries published alarming paragraphs to the effect that the British war vessels were making soundings and taking surveys and effecting other highly suspicious operations near Maldonado, and that they had gone to the extreme length of landing an armed force with instruments and terrible unknown engines. The Government was warned to prepare for an invasion, or at the very least a second Trinidade case. These blood-curdling revelations were apparently confirmed by a telegram from a newspaper correspondent in Maldonado, who said that he himself had seen those dreadful English at their tricks. Before such a denunciation the authorities could not remain silent, and accordingly an official telegram was sent to the Captain of the Port at Maldonado for information. His reply appeared yesterday, and was to the following effect: "It is not true that the English have been making plans of the port or measuring lands at Punta del Este. What they have done is to mark out a course for an English game that they have played here before and which is called golf!" Curtain." The Captain of the Port at Maldonado is a bluff man. There is a whisper that his telegram ran so: "Surveys be d—d. Putting down links for a game called Golf."

The plot of European diplomacy is thickening fast. The P. M. Gazette denies the news of an alliance on the cards between Franco and Spain, by which the latter consents to the former occupying Twat in Central Africa, in return for a big loan. In the Big Republic, in Kansas, they have burned a Spanish flag in public, to show the Dons how they love them. The leader in the matter is, one Mr. Archer, who has patriotically laid in a stock of Spanish flags and intends to burn one as a holocaust every night. Funny fellows Kansas men. The latest news is that President Cleveland will settle the matter by vetoing the vote of Congress about Cuban belligerency. So best: very much best. The most important news of all, however, is the broad hint given to Germany by the Novosti of St. Petersburg, and said to be inspired by the Czar himself. It says that the Triple Alliance is virtually broken up by Italy's defeat in Africa, and that Germany, single-handed will be unable to prevent France retaking Alsace and Lorraine. It recommends Emperor William to hold a plebiscite in those provinces to say whether they wish to remain German or not: either this, or make an independent state of them. In diplomatic circles this is looked on as a warning to Emperor William that European politics have entered on a new course. It is really wonderful to think that what all the dodges of diplomacy could not do—smash the Triple Alliance—has been done by the iron will of a lady who has tamed five husbands, Taitu, Empress of Abyssinia, wife of Menelik.

The contract for the purchase of the new ironclad Varese will be signed in a few days. The War Minister has named Minister Moreno, Captain Rivadavia and Lieutenant Carmona as a Commission to settle the business with the builders Orlando and Co.

The latest good news for the 20 years old National Guards is that Mr. Peralta Ramos's camp at Mar del Plata, right on the sea, stands a good chance of being selected as their manœuvring field. Whatever else may fail, there will be no lack of potatoes and milk in that quarter. To-morrow is the very last day for the Guards to present themselves; failing which two years' service in the Line.

FASHIONS AND ACTUALITIES.

How shall we dress this autumn? That's the question? For my part I do not think that fashion is changing very much, it will always be blouses more or less tight-fitting with skirts in different styles. The great "chic" will be to find elegant and original stuffs, and I myself have already been to Auld's and chosen a texture which is supple as kid for gloves, and which will please you so much the more Mesdames on account of its being essentially English; it is called tweed dress material, and I predict for it a great success; you will see.

However, I have already recommended to you this fashionable English establishment in Calle Alsina, where one always finds the latest novelties, which the famous London dress-makers make up into marvels of toilettes. I also saw there serges for travelling dresses which will be all the rage next season, and which have the advantage of being very easy to wear.

Now, are you very fond of your home? The moment to re-arrange it is approaching, and if you possess taste, you will always be dreaming of some change in the fixings.

Auld has just received a large assortment of Chenille table-covers and curtains, and they are so attractive that I shall surely buy some because I have a craze for these same Chenille goods.

Besides their originality they have the advantage of being very cheap. Everybody you know does not rejoice in a carriage and pair. I know some who have none at all, and for the latter the Almighty dollar is the ruling question.

After paying this edifying visit to Auld's house, I directed my steps to Calle Perú, and I saw M. Brun, the happy proprietor of the Ciudad de Londres. I hope this interview will be interesting on the eve of the incoming season. By the bye one must not be very corpulent to mount the staircase which leads to his office. I found him in the midst of a real chaos of goods. "You are welcome, Mlle. Parisine," M. Brun remarks with his usual kindness; "as you see, I have received all that Paris manufactures in novelties for the Autumn, and you shall be the first to admire all my handsome fancy materials for next season. I have already exhibited a part of them; but it was only the advance-guard, and the battalion is beginning to fill up! Here are silks, velvets and an assortment of linen goods, which will be a treat to look at, for a lover of goods things like you are."

"In a house like mine," continues M. Brun (meanwhile I was admiring and feeling all these beautiful stuffs which were shewn me), "it is not sufficient to offer goods of the first quality, but the goods themselves must also be cheap; thus we obtain this result by selling a large quantity. and content ourselves with a slight percentage; and moreover we buy under most advantageous conditions, thanks to the large orders we give.

So, our ready-made goods are within reach of all pockets, and every succeeding year we are obliged to enlarge our workshops.

At this moment a door was opened and I profited by the occasion to glance at this living hive where a considerable number of hands were preparing the silk and woollen stuffs.

I was even so impressed by the spectacle before me that I forgot for the moment my interlocutor, and when I returned to him again he was so deep in his occupation that I dared not divert his attention, and made myself scarce without shaking hands with him.

Another hive where they are also hard at work is at Lombardi's (the Buenos Aires Kedfern;) and this is more strange. because he ought to be still enjoying his holiday. but at Mar del Plata the ladies are more "coquettes" if anything than at Buenos Aires, and Lombardi's customers who have nothing new in the novelty line to put on, are demanding their most recent orders; and the needles are stitching more quickly than ever to finish the latest toilettes, of which you shall be initiated because they are marvels of high imagination.

The artist has just received his woollen stuffs, silks, velvets and lace, and is on the eve of inventingtsome new and elegant productions of fashions which have so much contributed to establish his well-known reputation.

Parisine.

Gold Premium.

FIRST RING 202.90%
SECOND RING..... 204.00%

The weekly gold settlement came off this morning in a very steady market. Very many operators expected a sharp rise at the first ring, but the supply of cash gold was too heavy. Over half a million gold changed hands for cash; the premium opened at 203%, fell to 202.20%, and closed at 202.90%. Two hundred thousand dollars were sold for the end of the month; the premium opened at 205.50 %, rose to 206%, and closed at 205.50%. An equal amount was sold for the 14th. the forthnightly settlement, the premium closing at 203.70. Small amounts were sold at 209% and 209.50% for end of April and 213% for May. The supply of cash gold was heavy to-day and checked the rising tendency of the speculation.

The tightness of paper money also acts as a forcible check on any rise in gold, The squeeze is felt in all quarters, especially on'Change and in the speculative circle. The "pase" to the end of month has fallen, no doubt, but it is still very stiff and shows how the wind blows. At all the banks the demand for paper is very sharp and bills are quoted hard at 8½ to 9%: only exceptional paper is quoted lower. Meantime, there is a plethora of gold and no demand, and large amounts of gold are due here this month. In fact, in April the market will be glutted with gold. To-day's telegrams from London announce a fresh shipment of 50,000 sovereigns for Liebig in Montevideo.

National Cedulas F were steady at 82¼ to 82.80. La Plata Cedulas rolled down to 18.40. Internal Bonds were a shade weaker at 75. Spanish Bank shares changed hands at 111 and Catalinas advanced from 4.70 to 4.90.

In exchange circles there is still an undercurrent of weakness whilst dullness reigns above. Some small operations were reported this morning. The market closed at:—

48¼ d. on London,
5.08¼-5.09 fcs. on France.
5.09¼-5.10 fcs. on Belgium.
4.12-½-4.13 mks. on Germany.

There is still a suspicion that the Treasary can account for the weakness of exchange.

The exchange market in Rio Janeiro is going from bad to worse, the proportions of the yellow fever epidemic having much to do with the dead-lock in business. When we hear of 130 men carried off by the plague on board one war vessel we can well imagine the gravity of affairs, although official bulletins only announce 30 to 40 deaths by the fever per day. Meantime, the exchange rate is dropping fast; at one time this morning there must have been a semi panic in the Rio market, as the cable flashed the rate as low as 8 3/8 d; in the afternoon it rallied and closed at 8 7/16 d. In Chile the exchange rate manages to hold out at 17 3/8 d., but the situation in Valparaiso is reported far from satisfactory.

The following is a summary of the business effected at the first ring to-day:—

London telegrams report Argentine stocks steady, but under the top prices of last week. Argentine railway shares are in great favour, and the stock of the Great Southern Railway has jumped several points to 134. Shares of the London and River Plate Bank are steady at 40. The boom has fizzled, but the market for Argentines remains very steady. This demand, however, does not appear to extend to the paper securities of the Government, such as Cedulas, Internal Bonds, Municipal Bonds, etc.

The first practical step towards the starting of the new bank to be styled the Banco Industrial Argentino has been taken, the statutes being handed round today. This concern, as will be remembered, is an offshoot or kind of foster-child of the Union Industrial Argentino, which has nourished and tended it, the conception, indeed, being due to the keen business foresight of some of the Union's most prominent members, who, aware or the meagre recognition of the banks for small industrial enterprises, saw an opening for investment and a splendid opportunity of furthering the aims of the society. The very best names accompany the prospectus, which is a guarantee for the market, and it is easily gleaned from the rules that the greatest care will be taken of the shareholders' interests. All the usual branches of banking operations will be taken. The capital will consist of 10,000 shares of $50 each, and business cannot be started till $100,000 is subscribed and $50,000 at least in hand. The shares are to be paid up $4 cash and the balance in monthly instalmants of $2 each. The board of the Union Industrial will run all the preliminaries.

The Chamber of Commerce of White Bay has felt it incumbent to address a note to the manager of the Southern railway acquainting him with the fact that whole heaps of cereals are spoiling along the line for lack of waggons. The manager, we imagine, will not be thunderstruck with surprise at this news, and we also think that if the Chamber had to think as much about those same cereal piles as the manager it would have saved itself the risk and paper of the note. The difficulty, as we have pointed out, is the moving of two harvests rolled into one, and stiff harvests at that.

The latest news from the other bank is that the Tessa business seems to be in a fair way of arrangement, Dr. Herrera having given in about the Western Railway, whilst the Government has relaxed in the political line, to reciprocate. The business, it is said, will meet with considerable opposition in the Chambers, but will go through, so that the bank is now as good as going, spite of all the difficulties that beset the way. As soon as the bill has been pushed through, therefore, the London parties will be advised and the money sent on. It has been a very thorny way. Matters now, however, seem smooth enough.

The following are the wool and cereal exports for week :—

	tons		$ gold
Wheat.....	34,000	=	765,000
Maize.....	32,000	=	512,000
Linseed	22,000	=	456,000
Wool.....	9,000	=	1,863.000
Total			3,596,000
Last week's..			3,905,000
In favour of last week			309,000

There has been an increase of about 10,000 tons in maize and a decrease of 2,000 tons in wheat and 10,000 tons in linseed, wool being the same.

Those that still continue to boast "algibes" are in luck, as Mr. Killey, formerly engineer on the City Improvement Works and well-known in the market, has patented a regulator which will avert the necessity of turning out in shirt sleeves in a typhoon to turn on or off the water as the case may be. It is automatic and lets the dirty water from roofs all go waste before the clean water is let into the "algibe". There is no doubt that it will meet with the acceptance it deserves, and a subscriber with a fancy for statistics calculates that there must be still 4000 "algibes" in Buenos Aires, apart from the camp. We invite all our subscribers to come and inspect the apparatus, though of course if they wish to see it at work they will have to await the next storm.

The old leaven cropping up again. Inspector Villafañe began inspecting a parcel of sheepskins and hides at Rojas yesterday, finding in 406 skins which he passed through his hands, no fewer than 266 or say 65 % outside the pale of the corresponding guia, and consequently liable to summary confiscation, and it is to be hoped that not only has this course been followed but the delinquent entertained at state expense. Sheep-lifting is so prevalent here that nothing but vigorous measures will stamp it out. Hanging is, of course, a trifle severe for the offence, but there is a very wide interval between Jack Ketch's sphere and "dismissed" without even a caution, as generally happens. However, unless the police vigilance has very much relaxed there is far less doing in this line now than when Dr. Narciso took office, however, much his policy in other respects may be questioned and piollied.

The British Bank of South America, Limited, has received a telegram from its Head Office advising that the directors intend recommending at the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders on the 26th March next, a further dividend of 8s. per share and a bonus. of 4s per share, for the past year, making a total distribution for the vear of £1 per share (£10 paid) or say 10 %. After these payments the sum of £20,041 will remain to be carried forward to the present year. We compliment our friend Mr. Heriot, the talented manager, on the splendid success of his bank.

The campaign between the Municipality and the Almaceneros goes briskly on, the trade being in a feverish pitch of wrath at the absurd way in which the tax is heaped up on them. One complains that he was ranked first category instead of last, reduced to second on appeal and then put back again to first on re-appeal, whilst another says that the tax-collector presented him with a bill for $500 which he reduced to $100 on being remonstrated with. If this be really the jurisdiction of the collectors it must be confessed that there is a very happy-go-lucky spirit about the whole business that accounts for the friction. A modicum of discipline and organization would obviate all this. The best plan is to let the almaceneros suggest a "modus operandi,,' as they alone are in a position to gauge the standing of the various stores. If they cannot do it who can!

Mr. Henry Enthoven reports the following sales of cement during this week:—10000 casks Eagle, 1000 do Loro; which makes a total since 1st January 1896 of 56,084 casks.

At three o'clock the liquidator called an auction to close the business of the settlement. He bought $26,000 gold at 204.20% premium. Some said that this arose from some mistake in the liquidation, but to judge by the amount it must be some "hitch."

The amount of gold withdrawn from the liquidation to-day excited some comment. Six hundred and fifty thousand gold dollars were taken up, which shows that there is still some paper money in the bullish camp.

About half a million gold dollars changed hands at the second ring, the premium ruling firm as a rock, Two hundred thousand dollars were sold for delivery on Monday; the premium opened at 203%, rose to 204 ¼ %, and closed at 204%. One hundred thousand dollars were sold for the end of the month; the premium opened at 206 and closed at 206 ½ %. National Cedulas F rose to 83 ⅛ and closed at 83%.

The following is a summary of the operations effected to-day at the second ring :—

SALES AND AUCTIONS.

The great 4-days auction at the Highland Scot Canning Co's factory in Quilmes closed yesterday, and proved a great success, the attendance on all the days of sale being tremendous, ranging between 250 to 300 daily, and all buyers, the bidding being very spirited all through. It must he noted, however, that though the catalogue was longer than a litany, what was sold did not include any of the really intrinsic parts of the 'fabrica', the latter remaining there complete, that is to say buildings and machinery, the articles realized at auction being only the accessories, tins, rope, tables, tubs, implements, etc. Everything offered went off like rockets at first rate prices, and the interest in the business can be gauged from the fact that there were about 200 buyers. The Ensenada railway stopped its trains at Espeleta to facilitate the business, and Messrs. Roman Bravo and Co had carriage of sale.

The sale of the day is from the South—from the valley. A Scotch gentleman has made a fine purchase there and is so pleased that though he leaves shortly for Europe he hopes to increase his holding later on. The camp in question is 1 ¾ league; with frontage on the Rio Negro, situated between Frias and Conesa colonies about some six leagues west beyond the estancias of Messrs. Maurice Buckland and Thomas Kincaid. The price is $12,000 for the ¼ league. There is great demand for the valley lands, but business is kept very quiet, and only very occassionally anything leaks out.

Strange to say for a Saturday, there was some business doing at the marts to-day, both Tattersall's and Bullrich's were well attended for the live-stock sales the bidding being brisk and spirited :—

PRODUCE MARKETS.

A stand-outish feeling is noticed in all produce. Cereals are slack, as long as gold was down these articles were up, now that the premium has assumed a steady basis one notices a certain deficiency in transactions. still the position is only momentary. Should an "eclat" occur in Europe, Argentine cereal holders would have to look for large deposits wherein to place their profits. The latest news is that millers round Rosario have stepped in on the sly and are operating in a "grandiose" style. So much the better, the enormous quantities outside can well compete with the demand, and if business is somewhat slack in the principal markets it does not mean to say that operations cannot be made outside. Farmers, however, have to suffer in these transactions as the prices paid are far below those paid in the principal centres. Linseed has not been able to attract more competition, in the exterior markets the article is quoted at 80 and 3 pence, but with this in its favour prices have not budged here. Bah! Everybody expected cow hides to be soaring, but the condition of the market has changed so suddenly that it has left the greater part of the "habitues" in the dark. What stands out to-day are sheepskins, although prices have not changed, the demand has increased considerably, Large parcels are arriving from the South, especially from the Colorado and Rio Negro, but the latter qualities attract little or no attention.

While the wheat markets here are dull, it is reported that the millers in Pereira, San Geronimo and Las Tunas have bought up in the past days some 40,000 bags of wheat. In our own markets the operations have shown a great falling off. The news from London is that very little is done in cereals and those from Antwerp report a great slump in business. 25 and 3 pence in London for wheat and 30 and 3 pence for linseed show that those markets are not as strong as formerly. Large sales were made this morning in maize, but prices seemed to have tumbled a few pegs. Export paid 2.91 and 3.30 for good sound parcels. The market closed slack for wheat and maize.

Linseed arrives in such small quantities that one cannot wonder at the etagnation noticed in operations here. The demand in Europe is not stiff enough to drive up current rates, and in the meantime the article is passing through exporters fingers like water, that is to say in prices and not as regards operations.

The Review of the River Plate gives us the following:—

The colonial wool auctions in London have turned out in first class style, 70,000 bales were sold and only 4,000 were retired. The domand lies all towards "merino," ¼ more was paid for "sucia" and ½ more for "lavada." The markets here, basing their operations on those of London and Antwerp, have turned the corner. The morning sales were reported at 700,000 kilos prices as firm as ever. Messrs. Devoto, Balbiani and Co. sold 110,000 kiles of wool from various parts at 8.50 and 9 dollars. The competition this morning was far brisker than yesterday. The German artistas had a stiff tiff with the French. The latter, however, having larger orders carried the field.

Wheat and maize are the leading articles in Rosario. This time last year no produce could touch linseed, to-day, however, exporters seem to neglect it. A roar is being raised by farmers at the prices of bags; the prices, it seems, have been raised 5 and 6 cents more than the former rates. The prices in wheat were well upheld at 7.00. Several sales were made at 6.90, 7, 7.10, and 7.15 but the real price in the market is 7 dollars. "Consignatarios" are waiting to see the results of the last shipments to Buenos Aires; from the prices paid for these parcels they will be able to form an exact idea as to how the markets stand. The day's sales were not important, 12,000 quintals were sold at the already noted prices. Nothing fresh is reported in maize. the highest prices fetched yesterday was 3.40, this morning 2000 quintals were sold at 3.20. Sellers and buyers believe that more than 3.15 cannot be paid for maize, it is a rare thing to hear the two rivals agreeing, as generally one stands out for higher prices than the other.

The slump in linseed still persists; the very best parcels that arrive here are only quoted at 9,60. The falling news from Europe has done a lot to upset the market. The large shipments from here have deadened in competition and a certain lapse must pass before a reaction can be expected.

The wheat markets in Montevideo have resumed their prices of 2.50 and 2,60 and if operations were small, it is due greatly to the sellers, who will not sell under said prices. The total amount sold was very small, not pasring 820 bags from 1.90 to 2.60.

A slack was noticed in maize this morning, the latest news from Brazil and Europe reports a drop in old quotations. The operations, however, are brisk, as the outside demand is stiff, notwithstanding the fall in rates.

Mr. F. Fregeiro's saladero, Pantanoso, sold to-day 2,000 salted steer hides of 3,125 kilos at 19.75 placed on board.

Wool operations offer no change, the market is evidently satiated and does not require any more parcels for a time. Artistas turn up now and again but refuse to pay the prices asked. According as the season draws to a close the same difficulties are noticed every year, the fact of the matter is that as exporters have fulfilled their contracts the remaining parcels command little attention from their part. Some few sales were concluded, but prices are kept under reserves.
